One Small Step...

ONE STEP AT A TIME

From the time we entered high school, we have encountered many triumphs and tribulations. Through it all, we realize that high school is confusing, at times, and, to deal with that, we should take one step at a time.

For the freshmen, their endless steps have only just begun for they have three more years of high school left. Though they may not yet realize the importance of their steps, they still proceed slowly and cautiously.

For the sophomores, they have put many footprints behind them, only to encounter new ones. At this point, their steps have become a bit bouncier and larger as they begin to understand what will occur in two years.

The junior steps are ones of agony as well as joy. Though they will take difficult steps through the SAT's, they will relish gliding through the doors to their Junior Prom. They now fully realize the importance of their steps and anticipate their final ones, wanting to leap towards them, but being held back by time.

For the seniors, we have taken One Step At A Time and have arrived at our very last step of high school — graduation. Now, as the Class of 1997 takes steps in different directions, they will always be able to look back at all the memories formed with each step and remember just how special our class is!!

Best Wishes and Good Luck Class of 1997!

Murgo: ready aim and fire.....

On August 25 the new and improved Seniors all gathered at my house to make their one in a million tye-dye's. With the smell of grilled hotdogs and hamburgers, we all realized that this would be the last B.B.Q. of our very short summer. Seeing people that we haven't seen since last June helped us comprehend that, yes, we are going back to school and we are now seniors. With slogens ranging from "One More Year We're Outta Here" to "We've Seen The Rest We Are The Best," we were ready to rock the school on the first day, and we did!

On Aug. 27th the senior class gathered for the annual Sr. Breakfast, that nobody seemed to eat! We arrived at the school together realizing that we now did and would rule the school the entire year. As we walked in yelling '97 and doing the usual rice and glitter throwing, WHS could see our amazing class unity. Later that morning we all attended the exciting First day assembly. When the day ended we couldn't believe that this would be our very last First day ever at WHS. We did what we wanted to do and that was ROCK THE SCHOOL!

Y FUN

On the first day of school, we had the pleasure of being surprised by the seniors when they ran up the third floor and threw glitter, rice, and silly string on the freshman to welcome us. We went up to our lockers which were a challenge to open, then we attempted to find our way to class. After listening to our teachers, we went to lunch and caught up with our friends. We left the WHS thinking that it was going to be a interesting year. — Sarah Gottlieb, Jill Pollack

On a bright sunny Saturday morning, the yearbook staff gathered in the high school parking lot prepared to get their feet (and their hair, and their clothes) WET! For once again, it was time for the annual Yearbook Carwash!!!! At nine o'clock in the morning, things didn't get off to a festive start despite Jim Morris and Becky Taylor's hilarious clown costumes. However, our mood quickly changed as our first customer arrived. We all jumped to get our buckets and hoses while Mr. Kaplan attempted to fix a pipe that burst!!! Soon after, the cars poured in and we were all kept busy (and wet) with the soap suds. As the carwash came to an end, we stumbled to our freshly washed cars realizing that all our hard work today was only the beginning!!!!

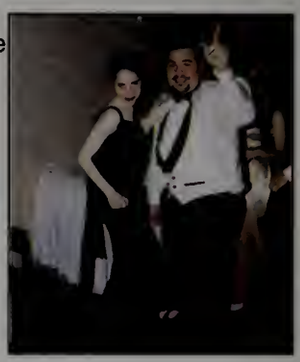
It was only one evening. A total of five hours of taking pictures, eating dinner and dancing. So, why did it take all of those attending months to prepare? First, it was your date (who?). Then, what to wear (dress? tux?), where to go before pictures (his house or hers?), how to get there (limo company?), and, last but not least, what to do after (?)!

The prom quickly became the focus of all thoughts and the topic of all conversations. Still, April 26th was here before we knew it. After few hours of preparing, primping, and posing for picutres, we were ready for our Junior Prom.



We enjoyed one of the most memorable nights of our lives.

1997 Class History

With feelings of insecurity and anxiety for the years to come we entered WHS on September 7th 1994 as the graduating class of 1997. The traditions began with hanging out at Subway and attending many of the long awaited high school events: Rangers football games, basketball games, and Russ Bergess. We then realized we were now officially apart of the big bad high school life.

Freshman year went by before we knew it, and we were now entering sophomore year. With our experiences from freshman year we now knew what to expect, and how to successfully survive in WHS. Sophomore year unwantingly brought us more homework, and more worries for the following years. Words and phrases like PSAT's and College Searching began to enter our vocabulary; however we all knew that we still had a lot of time left. So we went on working diligently in our geometry and biology classes, not caring too much about our college future. Sophomore year came and went in a flash. Upperclassman time was about to begin.

Junior year was now upon us. We had new worries. SAT's, ACT, and our College Searching had been just the beginning of our wonderful stress-related life. The Jr. Prom was the event that everyone was waiting for. On April 26th our class gathered at the Sheraton Tara Castle for the best prom ever. We found ourselves getting down and boogying! When the night was over the fun had just begun. The post prom parties went on all weekend. However, when the class of '96 graduated we finally realized that it was now our duty to rule the school.

With a very short summer coming to an end, we found ourselves uniting by doing the usual senior traditions. On August 27th we all met at Bickfords for the annual Sr. Breakfast (big $200 mistake). Nobody could believe that this would be our last "first day" at WHS. We were now officially The Seniors. We now had the responsibility of applications and college essays. Senior year is very chaotic one day, and very layback the next. As we look back at the past four years we've gone through at WHS, all that can really be said is '97 HAS SEEN THE REST, BUT WE'RE THE BEST!!! So as our lives head off in different directions, I just want to thank the class of '97. I love you guys, from your president.

Activities

For the past four years raising money for the class of '97 has been a fun, exciting, and a great learning experience for anyone who helped out. Our annual Pasta Suppers, Pancake Breakfasts, Dances, and Car Washes have been some of the most memorable experiences through out our high school career and they will never be forgotten. The money we raised from these activities has helped our class become one of the most successful and wealthiest classes to ever pass through WHS. It also helped our class have a great Junior Prom, Senior Ball, Class Trip, not to mention helping us get out of a couple sticky situations here and there. Anyway, my high school years were a blast and I wouldn't change them for the world. Whether it was selling Hebert's candy bars, Ranger pins, cookies & soda, or even raffle tickets, I'll never forget all the fun we shared.

London

We began the nine day journey on February 16, 1996. Ten Westboro High School students and Mrs. Morrel squished into a mini-bus and drove off ready to take on London.

Despite minor complications (water gun confiscation and airline food) we made it across the Atlantic Ocean and reached our destination. Most of us were strangers only 12 hours before, but now it felt like we'd known each other for years. Over the next week we became closer, had a blast, and found London to be one of the best cities on earth. It's full of culture, class, entertainment, and fun.

Highlights of the trip include Leed's Castle, Stonehenge, choir performance in the Salisbury cathedral, and relaxing at the Forum hotel.

Just want to thank Mrs. Morrel and her daughter Caitlin for setting up the trip and giving us plenty of freedom.

WHAT IF . . .
– we never met Winnie, Letitia, Diane, Matt, Jay & the snob squad
– Diane actually stayed in a youth hostel
– we believed that Alison and Becky went to a frat party
– we never ate at CHI-CHI's
– we didn't fly Virgin Atlantic and got those cool bags with the stuff in them.
– there hadn't been bomb scares
– we never met Mrs. Rourke-Dupuis' brother

REMEMBER WHEN . . .
– we got lost in that bush maze
– Jen, the really cool one, wore her 6 inch heeled boots and fell out of the bus
– Mrs. Morrel and Jay had a brawl in the hall
– Meredith karate-kicked the bathroom door into the old chaperone
– Mrs. Morrel jumped into the tourist's picture
– London shut down because it snowed 1/16 of an inch

- DAVE MONTE DIDN'T SUFFER FROM BIG MAC(K) ATTACKS?
- BRIAN RICE HAD LOST HIS SHADOW?

◂Maybe Dave's shirt really works — BAHHAAHAHA-HAAHH!

◂◂Jeff, Doug, Tim are in awe of Europe's sights — either that or the lack of sleep is getting to them.

- Stacy and Sara Ayers actually found the wabbits?
- Sara Scott didn't like bread?
- the Sophomore girls had to "rough it" in Paris?
- Steve Millet didn't know French?
- Faye and Erin hadn't realized their "true feelings" for each other?
- Doug Margossian had behaved?
- we weren't allowed to sleep on the bus?
- those European guys hadn't made Stephanie and Melissa feel right at home?
- Mr. Gravel believed in public transportation instead of walking everywhere?

GERMANY

In April of 1996, ten WHS students, their Frau, and two other adult chaperones departed for a nine day tour of Germany and Austria. Highlights of the trip included a cruise down the Rhine River, a visit to Oberammagau, sight of the Passion Plays which take place only once in a decade, and a climb up the mountain to tour the fairy tale castle of King Ludwig II, known as Neuschwanstein. We got to sample some Schnutzel, Wurst, Donnaires, and Spezi and to view the atmosphere at the famous Höfbrauhaus of Munich. Everyone fell in love with Munich and vows to return for a longer time.

REMEMBER WHEN:

-Mahendra busted a move at the disco.
-we met the Seattle kids.
-Shara couldn't drink enough "OJ" at breakfast.
-J.T. did his "John Travolta" in every picture.
-John "Take all my" Marks.
-Louisia was a.k.a. "The Lady in Red."
-the "lost" passport.
-we took the Rheine tour.
-Rothenburg...enough said.

Dear Mom and Dad,

Guten Tag from Germany! We're all having so much fun here. The castles are gorgeous, the people are friendly, and the food is delicious. None of us want to leave. I bought some great gifts for you guys from München and Freiburg during some of our day trips through the cities. I've taken so many pictures—can't wait to show them all to you! See you soon.

Yours,

GUYS & DOLLS

On May 3rd and 4th, our anticipation reached new heights. Each night of the performance, we nervously waited behind the closed curtain. When the lights went on and the music began to play, we suddenly found ourselves on stage. The weeks of hard work and dedication made it possible for us to put on a nearly flawless show. With Mr. Jost guiding us from the pit, and Ms. Leahy giving us positive reinforcement from behind the curtain and during intermission, we were able to pull through. Each night as the curtain closed, and the final notes were sung, we realized that the hard work had payed off. On both nights, the cast and crew put on an outstanding show.

The hard work and great times will always be remembered, even after the last curtain closed.

The Holiday Ball
December 13th 1996
"A Wonderful Night"

Being in charge of the Holiday Ball, my goals were simple, #1: do something totally different, something amazing that anyone there would never forget, #2: pray to God that everything works out all right, even if the ball just so happens to land on Friday the 13th of December.

The long awaited night came upon us and 7:30 seemed to roll around in no time, as the students entered into the newly decorated lobby at WHS. To their surprise no one could actually believe that this was the same place that they attend school five days a week, seven hours a day. The glow of the chandelier and the disco balls lighted the faces of everyone dancing on the checkered ballroom floor. Lights on anything that stood still, purple wall coverings hung with star-like figures floating on them, balloons catching your eye at every corner of the room, not to mention gourmet desserts in the cafe, and what ball would be complete without a Holiday tree that twinkled all night long with what seemed like thousands of blinking lights? However, it wasn't until I looked out into the crowd that I finally knew this night was perfect. Everyone was laughing, dancing, and having a great time. That was the exact way I pictured this night to be. It was truly "A Wonderful Night."

Senior-Faculty Softball Game

With school almost over, the Seniors (at the time, juniors) and the faculty of Westborough High School engaged in one last test- not including finals.

The students met on the field, concentrating on proving that they had brains AND bronze. Meanwhile, the teachers were determined to prove some things do improve with age.

So, the battle began. With Mr. Mewhiney acting as umpire, it was obvious who had the home field advantage- the faculty. This combined with great hits into the woods from Mr. Rota, Mr. Mongeau and Coach Ellis, helped the faculty pull off a great win.

In Memoriam

Dr. John P. Doherty

May 1936 - January 1997

Superintendent of the Westborough
Public School System

As I reflect on the six years that I had the opportunity to work with Dr. John P. Doherty, I realize how much I learned from this articulate, intelligent and caring man. When I think of the qualities I most admired about Dr. Doherty, I would include his patience, his understanding, his style of leadership, and his Irish wit and humor.

Dr. Doherty was a thoughtful and committed man who believed in public education. When making decisions he did not take a unilateral approach but worked towards consensus. I believe his years as President of the Boston Teachers Union gave him the experience to become such a skillful negotiator and school leader.

Dr. Doherty is greatly missed and fondly remembered. He gave much more to the Westborough Schools and to the community than he ever asked or expected in return.

~Maureen Zolubus~

I met Dr. John Doherty in the fall of my sophomore year. I was introduced to him as the student representative to the school committee. I sat directly opposite him during the meetings and he always seemed to have an aura of power. I always admired his knowledge from his years of teaching. He knew what needed to be done, the politics to get it done, and how to keep the big picture in mind. Whenever it was called for, he would have a great sense of humor. I will always remember how he helped me push for a swim team. He showed me how to strive for something I wanted. I am very thankful for the chance to work and learn from Dr. Doherty.

CLASS OF 1997:
Congratulations to each of you on completing the graduation requirements of Westborough High School. I hope that your experience has been productive, valuable, and enriching. Thank you for your understanding during the past four years of changes which have included the Armstrong School in our building, the loss of study halls, and the ban on hats. Good health and success in your future endeavors.

"WORDS TO REMEMBER: I've come to a frightening conclusion that I am the decisive element in the classroom. It's my daily mood that makes the weather. As a teacher, I possess a tremendous power to make a child's life miserable or joyous. I can humiliate or humor, hurt or heal. In all situations, it is my response that decides whether a crisis will be escalated or de-escalated and make a child humanized or dehumanized"- Haim Ginott.

The '95 season was one of the best in the history of Westborough Softball. We claimed the District Championship and lost in the State Semi-Finals by only one run in the eleventh inning. With the loss of four starting seniors, the eight of us that returned in '96 didn't know what to expect.

From the start of the season we were plagued with injuries and illness, from stress fractures to knee injuries. With all of the injuries, it was difficult to put together a solid team that could consistantly play together. We had a tough start, but we pulled through and won our last few games to qualify for Districts.

Our District game was against Oakmont, one of our biggest rivals. We played hard, even after a home run was taken away from us. Unfortunately, Oakmont came out on top. However, we were proud of how hard we played and happy with the season.

Right On Track

The Westboro men's and women's track teams both had outstanding seasons in 1996. The men's team went 6-2, the best dual meet record in recent years. Lead by a strong class of '97 core, including Dirk Mieth (100m, 200m), Aaron McCain (300m hurdles), Mike Clark (800m), Dave Clark (mile), Mark Vautour (2 mile). As a result of these outstanding efforts, the team was able to take control of the competition.

The women's record of 3-5 is deceiving; the team contains many talented athletes. A strong class of '99 should secure the hopes of an impressive team for years to come. Hayley Thompson (100m, 200m), Katherine Ryan (800m), Liz Lucas (mile), Becky Howard '97 (400) and many others will be returning next year to run a successful campaign.

We give special thanks to coaches Mary Ryan, Mike Clements, and Clark Masters for helping us accomplish our goals.

Marco concentrates on a strong return.

The Boys' Tennis Team started and continued with high hopes. Phenoms' Marco Gojanovic, Andy Sarkisian, and Jeremy Lee returned to play our 1-3 singles. Sophomores Josh Lee and Jess Rilla formed the core of our first doubles while the rest of the team rotated around to produce second doubles. Our disappointing loss at the state semi-finals last year prompted an air of vengeance this year, as we geared up for district play. With only one loss, we again hoped to be the number one seed. Even though we lost last year's seniors–Andy Sarkisian, Jeremy Lee, and Dahmen Lariviere–the talent on this team runs deep and the outlook remains bright.

THE TOP

Even though our record didn't reflect it, our tennis team had an excellent season. We learned a lot, and put forth an incredible effort. Perhaps most important, we made lasting friendships.

Last spring was a rebuilding year for the Westborough Tennis Team. The returning seniors made a great contribution to the team and helped her younger teamates improve their play. Two other varsity players from last year's team also returned this season as single players.

Our team was coached by Carolyn Loconto who spent a lot of time and a great deal of effort in teaching us the game and in helping us to develop our skills. She was patient and always willing to lend a hand. In addition, we developed team spirit and had lots of fun. The memories of the 1996 tennis season at Westborough High will be with us always.

The volleyball Team had high expectations for the '96 season, even though it was only our second year as a varsity sport. After winning only one game our first year, we were ready for a winning season and a District seed.

With the loss of only one senior and key JV players stepping up to varsity, the season looked promising.

We were the first Westborough team to qualify for Districts, by winning seven of our first nine matches. We ended our regular season at 10-5, and looked foward to our first chance in Districts.

FOOTBALL

Unfortunately for the 1996 Rangers, all of our goals were not reached this season. With just three returning starters and a schedule that included three Super Bowl teams, the Rangers finished with a 3-7 record.

The highlight of our season came when we beat the powerhouse of Central Massachusetts, the North Middlesex Patriots, 19-5.

Despite our subpar season, we came together as a team and received contributions from not only Seniors and Juniors but also Sophomores and even a Freshman. Most importantly we never gave up. Good Luck to next year's team.

Once upon a time in a far away land called Westboro there was a group of beautiful, ambitious, graceful field hockey players who roamed the land in search of worthy competition. We let if be known, to surrounding kingdoms, that "we meant business" and war and that they were in danger of being dethroned." So we prepared ourselves for the many strenuous tasks that we would soon endure. We survived the hot month of August under the watchful eye of Queen Debs.

With our final squad suited for battle, we encroached upon neighboring lands. In our continual effort, we sought to disprove our mediocre record. Our gourmet feasts, provided by our loyal subjects, (aka Moms), satisfied our hunger and prepared us for battles that lay ahead. Our assembly of dilligent teammates persevered through our trying season, qualifying us for the postseason tournament. In our first duel, we escaped sudden death (barely) - "NO DOUBT" We were on our way to "dethrone" our rivals. Despite our valliant efforts, throughout the crusade, the rebels had a stroke of good luck, ending our season in despair.

Although we had been defeated, we kept our composure with style and grace, returned to our kingdom, with our heads held high and we lived happily ever after. The End.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Soccer 1996 . . . what can we say? It was a season of "beginnings". New coaches, a new field, new uniforms, new captains, new players and new drills. A new team. The victories were few but the effort was plentiful. HIGHLIGHTS include: dipping fun, the 3 mile run(s), the warning, the lost-stolen-equipment, Chinese food, the "sane" Milford coach, the &$%#$ Algonquin team, days of the week, sacred soccer mix, nail polish, power pills (aka captains' M'n'M's), WWIII and practice, of chumps! a team full building the West- It was a re-Rangers year for which means next season will be that much better. Best of Luck to next year's team. (Don't be a Lisa Goldberg!) Dana and Shara, you'll be great! We love you! (P.S.: You better Konk Algonk for us!)

MEN'S SOCCER

The 1996 season of Westborough Rangers Soccer conveyed mixed messages. Our record didn't give credit to the outstanding efforts of the team. The competition was stiff, but we presented a balanced attack. The threat was clearly depicted in our closing match at Algonquin. Thanks to an overwhelming Westborough crowd in attendance, we gave the Tomahawks the closest battle in years. The superior leadership shown by the seniors was crucial to the teams strong sense of unity, which was apparent throughout the season. Our season was more than a collection of wins and losses, it was a stepping stone to future success. We wish the Westborough Rangers a plethora of triumph in years to come.

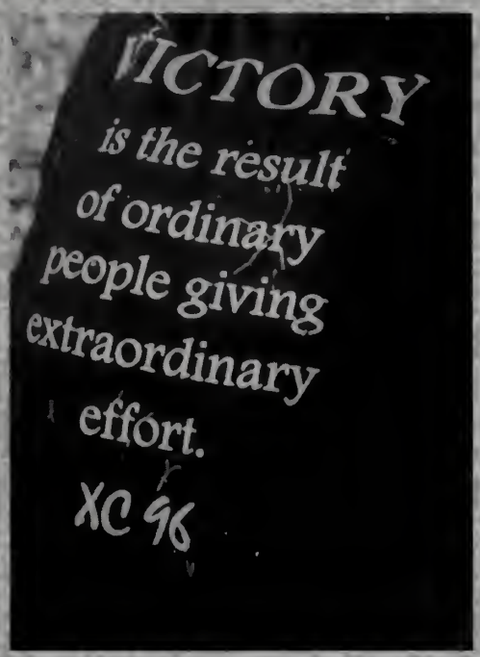
THE SEASON

The Westborough High School Women's Cross Country team had an exciting and surprising season. With an unusually large number of runners this year, we gained the strength necessary to become a successful team. Although we were primarily made up of underclassmen, we did not lack the competitiveness that usually takes time to develope. We were once again coached by John Doyle, who gave us endless encouragement and motivation. The team, led by sophomores Liz Lucas, Lisa Gentilotti, Carrie Allard, Senior Captain Sara Ayres, and freshman Kirsten Barbee, finished respectably this season with a 4-5 overall record. However, this record does not reflect our season very well. Almost every loss was a close one, some down to just one point, which is better than the team has done in a long time. A special congratulations is given to sophomore Liz Lucas. Through her outstanding running ability, she captured tenth place in the Nashoba Invitational Meet and fifth in the League Championship Meet. She is definitly a runner to watch in the upcoming seasons.

The Woman's Cross Country team had a very memorable season. Through all our undying spirit and dedication to the sport, we have created a very successful team that will continue to show more and more of its talent in the years to come.

~Sara Ayres~



Determination Wins Over.

These are the words that defined the 1996 Westborough Cross Country season as we set and reached our goals. Charging through every barrier in our path, we settled for nothing but success.

Our determination proved to be our greatest asset as we won numerous upset victories, including the achievment of our season goal; a team trophy at the Wachusett Invitational. By the end of our season, we had racked up an 8-2 record, the best record in many years for the Cross Country team. These accomplishments are largely due to the strong performances of Senior Captains Mike Clark and Dave Clark, and junior standout Rob Sickorez. Other great contributers throughout the season included junior Jake Nunly, sophomore Jeremy Nute, and particularly Senior Captain Mark Vautour, who, despite a season long injury, was able to play a huge role in the motivation, spirit, and success of the team.

Although the outlook for the months ahead seemed questionable during the preseason, the optimism and effort of the team allowed us to overcome all doubts. Our team shirts declared this best with our motto: "Victory is the result of ordinary people giving extraordinary effort." The 1996 Westborough Cross Country team truly exemplified the meaning of the word "team," and this season will not soon be forgotten.

This year was a great one for the WHS cheerleading team. It began with a four day camp at Emmanuel College. At this camp, the team really got to know each other. Underclassmen joined in with the seniors and juniors and by the time double sessions rolled around, we were ready to begin the football season.

With a lot of underclassmen strength added to the team and plenty of experience from the seniors, we had a strong team all around. We put together a routine that we performed at an exhibition in Shrewsbury and at the annual Thanksgiving pep rally.

The basketball season started almost immediately after the end of football. We had a large team and were able to practice difficult stunts, such as liberties, that we would normally do at competition. Cheering for the team was a lot of fun because of the winning season and we worked hard to cheer the players on.

Overall, because of the versatility of the freshmen, the hard work of the sophomores, the spirit of the juniors, the strength of the seniors, and the leadership of captains Katie Storey and Sarah Hegarty, it was an enjoyable and memorable season.

For the senior tri-captains, the '96-'97 basketball season began when last year's ended. The summer was spent ganizing and playing on two teams. We participated in fund-raisers in order to get new warm-ups and sneakers. On ecember 2nd we had our first game of the season. As the season wore on, the team found itself plagued with injuries and ckness. Sometimes we thought that nothing was ever going to go our way. But despite these problems, the entire team ways played with heart. In spite of our record, we kept team spirit up by our holiday sleepover, Secret Santa, pasta parties, d our wild outfits in school. One of the highlights of the '96-'97 season was the win against our rival, Algonquin at our last me game. Good luck to all our returning teammates in next year's season. Thanks for all the memories.

Above the Rim '96-'97 League Champs

With eight seniors, six returning from last year's league championship team, there were high expectations for this years men's varsity basketball team. We have enjoyed an almost unstoppable combination of experience and superior talent. This combination has earned us our second league championship in a row, with a regular season record of 14-3. As we begin post-season play, the Clark Tournament (#2) seed, and Districts, we are playing our best basketball of the season.

Our success has come from many sources. The spirit and inside presence of seniors Ben Harvey and Kevin Bilodeau, the experiece and leadership of seniors Doug Margossian and Chris Paquette, and the all-around versatility of senior Damon Blackman and returning league MVP Tavis Paquette have all added unique contributions to the team. Senior Dutch imports Wim and Reine Van Der Kamp have added their extreme athleticism and added inside presence to the team. With this combination, our success should come as a surprise to no one.

Many of us have played together since middle school, and our friendships and familiarity with each other show on and off the court. We have truly played as a team, and continue to improve each day. I feel the leadership displayed and the actions of this team on and off the court have represented the very best qualities of Westborough High School and the class of 1997. Thank you to the coaches and especially the fans for their unmatchable support throughout the year.

Through sickness, scheduling conflicts, and crummy pool time, we managed to come together to form the first ever Westborough High School Swim Team. Every night from 8:00 to 9:30 we met for practice, each of us reaching for a common goal; faster times.

Others also practiced more "important" things, such as the "no strut rule" (instituted by John Sherman). This meant a speedo may not be seen on the pool deck for more than five seconds or farther than five feet away from the water. Although a few violations were made, we bonded together as a team to make sure the rule was enforced every night.

It was through bonds like this that made the individual sport of swimming a team sport. As our season came to an end, we finished with a winning record, qualifying eight swimmers for the sectional meet. Hopefully, we will advance to the state championships and continue to grow in the future.

INDOOR TRACK

The Indoor Track Teams continued to build their reputations of excellence throughout the 1996-1997 season.

On the mens' team Senior Captains Dirk Meith, Mike Clark, Dave Clark, and Allan Maus provided the leadership needed to lead the team to victory. All four of these captains not only qualified for the State level competition, but also set school records in their respective events.

Also qualifying for State competition was junior Jake Nunley in the high jump.

The womens' team was lead by Senior Captains Sara Ayres, Becky Howard, and Jen Krasner. State Qualifiers included Becky Howard, sophomore Liz Lucas, and freshman Jenna Sunkenberg. Their talent, along with the the large number of athletes on this year's team, led the women to a successful season.

The Mens' and Womens' Teams would like to thank Coaches Mary Ryan and Rick Hebert for their dedication and support. Without them, our growth and capacity would not have been as great as it was.

Supported by growing numbers and talent, the Mens' and Womens' Indoor Track Teams are sure to dominate in years to come.

re all the people mad?"

Perhaps that's what many people thought when Centerstage announced its decision to put on William Shakespeare's welfth Night." We were venturing in uncharted waters with this one, and Ms. Leahy and I were thrilled at the opportunity to oneer with such an awesom cast. Several cast members made their first appearances with Centerstage. The following idents gave their time and enthusiam to make the play a success: Anna Staniszewski '97, Dave Rothman '98, Kate rnham '97, Chas Kircher '97, Meg McGrath '98, Eric Bennett '97, Katelyn Hinson '98, Matt Doherty '98, Amanda Erwin '97, att Mello '98, Meredith Innis '98, Chris Bagg '97, Ann DeWitt '99, Dan Hubbard '98, Kristy Hall '97, Matt Silverstein '99, egan Jansen '97, Steve Terry '98, and Joe Roberts '97.

Undaunted by the Elizabethan English, this talented group entertained the audience with mistaken identities, yellow ckings, faux love letters, sharp wit, and original music written by Kate, Chris, and Dan. Despite illness, chicken pox, ncussions, and snow storms, this dynamic cast and crew put together two memorable performances to add to nterstages excellent reputation.

-Kristin Sakalys

Centerstage Theater Group

Centestage has been a large part of Westborough High School's performing arts department since its formation in 1987. Centerstage gives students the opportunity to act, direct, or provide backstage help during their time in the high school. In its nine years, it has developed into a multi-faceted activity, exposing students to dramatic arts in many different ways. Our Fall Play and Festival of Student Directed One Act Plays, as well as the addition of the Improv Troupe in 1993 have been instrumental in our success. Improv has proven to be one of the most well-liked aspects of our group, allowing students to sharpen their improvisational acting skills, and just plain have fun on a weekly basis. These are just a few of the many ways that Centerstage has tried to establish itself as a group committed to a high standard of quality theater productions.

Yearbook

Advisor, Mr. Kaplan.

Lauren Grimley and Christine Passler are excited about being next year's co-editors.

Right: Gee Jim, how do you really feel about yearbook?

Mark relaxes after stocking the Coke Machine.

Kaplan says "Being a yearbook advisor isn't too stressful"- ah, right.

I promised myself that I wouldn't be maudin- after all yearbook staffs come and go. From year to year, one might think that little changes- maybe so. Don't believe it for a moment. Come into 301 some yearbook period and you'll soon see, hear, and feel a different thing going on then what has gone on before. But how would you know; you wouldn't. Maybe that's the point. I will miss the tug and war and verbal repartee with Dirk Mieth and Jim Morris, the behind-the-scene work of Amanda Boyce, Sarah Hegarty, Nicole Granger, Julie Groce, Meredith Morgan, Becky Taylor, and Mark Vautour. I know that Carrie Fleming, Cara Stazinski, and Melissa Murgo are distinct and wonderful. Laura Sturgis is irreplaceable. A Lauren Grimley doesn't appear around every bend, and Stacy Lacouture and Jen Krasner, who always "knew that" function, somehow, as the dynamic duo. From them, I've learned how to deal with bright, enthusiastic, and dedicated people.

I will miss these people. We've walked, a step at a time, a long way together and now it's time to say good-bye.

But Not you, Grimely!

Bob Kaplan

The Editors

I can't believe the yearbook is finally finished! Yahoo! I no longer have to worry about whether or not pictures were taken, if the copy was written, or did we label everything properly? I will no longer have stress, ulcers, or panic attacks the night before a deadline! And, most importantly, I will no longer have to look at the graphics Mr. Kaplan thinks are "cool."

Last year, when Mr. Kaplan asked me to be an editor, I was thrilled. Little did I know how much time and effort would go into planning 192 pages of a yearbook. I never imagined that I would be thinking about this book 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. I certainly didn't imagine spending many afternoons in room 301 makimg sure everything was perfect for our deadlines. However, I feel a great sense of accomplishment now that this book is completed. I hope that everyone enjoys the yearbook as much as I enjoyed putting it together.

I could not have made this yearbook by myself. Stacy, thank you so much for jumping into Eva's spot as co-editor (by the way, where is Eva?). You saved my life and, occasionally, my sanity. Nicole, the pictures look great! You did a fantastic job making sure that everybody had the pictures they needed! Mark & Laura, thanks for doing the ads — they look terrific. (Laura, watch out for chemical spills!) Melissa, the Holiday Ball was a huge success. You outdid yourself. To the rest of the staff: Meredith, Becky, Jim, Dirk, Mike, Jeff, Stephanie, Amanda, Julie, Lauren, Cara, Becky H., Melissa B., and especially Sarah & Carrie for typing the senior grids, thanks. If it weren't for all of you, there wouldn't be a book.

Lastly, I have to thank Mr. Kaplan. Your sheer patience and carefree attitude was always able to calm me down, no matter how stressed out I was. Thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to be an editor and to take over your room. You're the greatest advisor ever — "I knew that."

Good luck with next year's book Lauren & Christine. You guys will do a great job!

It's been fun!

Love,
Jen

Jen is smiling now that the yearbook i totally, and completely finished!!

"Time it was and what a time it was, it was . . .
A time of innocence, a time of confidences.
Long ago it must be, I have a photograph,
Preserve your memory, they're all that's left you."

Pictures. It is said that a picture is worth a thousand words. I think that a picture is worth a thousand memories. One glance at a smile can trigger the recollection of hundreds of adventures. So naturally, I was very excited when asked to be the photo editor of the yearbook. Little did I know what I was getting myself into.

It has definitely been a challenging experience. With crazed people after me for pictures, there were times when I feared for my life. But, fortunately, Stacy, Jen, and especially Mr. Kaplan were very understanding. I was also lucky enough to get help from Becky Taylor & Melissa Murgo. Thanks to them, we managed to get everything from the senior breakfast, to superlatives, to sports, in on time.

I would like to thank Jen & Stacy, the yearbook staff, and especially Mr. Kaplan. It's been a lot of fun. For next year's staff, good luck! — You're gonna need it! And to the Class of '97, I hope that you enjoy looking back at our memories. I know that I will!

Lots of Love,
Nicole

Nicole is happy she no longer has to ho a camera to her face!

ark and Laura are grinning now that the ads e finished.

Being a part of the Yearbook Staff over the past two years has been a lot of fun and a great learning experience. The entire staff put a lot of effort into this book, so I hope you enjoy it. Thank you Jen, Stacy, Nic, Sturge, and especially Mr. Kaplan. Best of luck next year. It's been a lot of fun!

Mark Vautour

At the end of my junior year, when I was asked to be the sports editor and co-business editor with Mark, I, of course, said yes. Little did I know what I would be getting myself into. My first yearbook experience came at the annual car wash. When I turned on the water and a pipe broke, it was a sign that this year was going to be more difficult than I anticipated. Once the fire department came and stopped the flood, I knew that things could only get better.

My next challenge came at Mount Holyoke Yearbook camp. I found myself flooded with a new computer program, new ideas, and new terms. With the help of Lauren, Jen, and Mr. Kaplan, I managed to survive the week in one piece. We were also able to complete a few pages of the yearbook. By the way, while I am talking about camp, I just wanted to let everyone know that the chemical spill was not my fault!

The summer quickly passed and the school year began. I found my free time being spent on yearbook, yearbook and more yearbook. With what felt like millions of ads to do I was immediatley overwhelmed. I spent hours on the phone with the senior parents letting them know when the ads were due and giving them some ideas on how to do their layouts. By December, I had finished the ads and was ready to concentrate on sports pages. Cara, my trusty partner, and the other staff members helped complete this enormous task.

As I finish up my last layout this week, I will never forget the great times we had, even though they never let me use the scissors, razor blade or glue. Believe it or not, I made it through the year without destroying anything of value, like the computer.

Mr. Kaplan, thanks for helping us out. We couldn't have done it without you. Sorry about getting your clothes a little wet at the car wash! Nicole and Mark, even though we weren't in yearbook study together, thanks for your help. Mark, thanks for helping to sell the books. I had a great time working with you as co-editors this year. Jen, I will never forget the horrible food at yearbook camp and our seventh period gossip hour. Stacy and Jen, thanks for everything. I'm glad someone remembered when our next layout was due or what point size captions were in. Mrs. Orff, thank you so much for helping me write checks and deposit money. I don't know what I would have done without you. Good luck next year, Lauren!

cy is glad that she can spend the rest o enior year stress FREE!

Once upon a time there was a young girl, let's call her Stacy, who wanted to be a part of yearbook more than anything. Well, one day, her wish came true when the Yearbook Wizard, let's call him Mr. Kaplan, offered her a position as one of the editors and told her it would be a "great learning experience" and "lots of fun." "Oh yes!" She replied, "I would love to be a yearbook editor!" Little did she know it was really an evil plan to suck her into the world of (dum, dum, dummm) STRESS 101.

Sure, at first it was a great class — no homework, gossip galore, you got to look at all sorts of pretty pictures, and for a while the Wizard remained quiet. But then, one day the Wizard turned evil and started talking about nasty things like deadlines and missing pictures. The young girl was distraught; she was stressed; she lost all control and patience in the snap of one's fingers (many can attest to this). She would yell at the Wizard (sometimes for no apparent reason and at other times for very legit reasons) and she would freak out. All this for the FIRST deadline! But that passed. The deadline was reached with relatively few snags and all was happy once again.

Then, the Wizard had another mean streak (for you see normally he was quite kind) and he started talking about the scariest thing of all: SENIOR GRIDS! Surely this would be the end of Stacy's sanity! But, just as she was about to jump out the window her fairy godmothers arrived (yes, she was very lucky she had two!). Their names were Carrie and Sarah, and they said, "Not to worry Stacy we will type, edit, and organize the grids — just stop yelling!" Stacy was so happy because now she had a dress for the Ball (oops sorry wrong story — though Stacy did go to a Ball and it was very nice thanks to Queen Melissa). Anyway, the fairies, Carrie and Sarah did as they promised and to this day Stacy is forever indebted to them. Especialy Fairy Carrie who made sure that Stacy did not develop an ulcer from stressing herself out and made her see that the Wizard was not truly evil. In fact, by the end of the year Stacy was truly grateful to the Wizard for all he put up with from her and is happy to report that she did not cause him an ulcer either.

(Stacy would also like to thank Jenn, Lauren, Laura, Nicole, and the rest of the yearbook staff for their help and cooperation. Thanks it's a great book!)

So the moral of this story is: a watched pot never boils but a stressed out Stacy does!

"BEST FRIENDS ARE ONE MIND IN TWO BODIES"

To Our Daughter Melissa,

We knew when you were young you had big dreams but what we didn't know was how well you would achieve them. Dance, Piano and Softball, we knew you wouldn't be satisfied until you did them all. With every step that you have taken, we have been so proud Class President for four years and without any fears. Now you're off to your last year at Westboro High with hopes of Law books piled high to the sky. Your brother Dominic has always been over-protective of you, but that's what Big brothers do. Dad loved helping with the dinners 'cause he knew the class of '97 would be winners. We love you for the Lady you have become, strongminded, selfdisciplined, with such high ideals and that's just some of what makes you #1. For all the special qualities that you possess for all that you are and all that you've accomplished you have brought us much happiness. With every smile you brighten our lives, you truly are OUR DREAM COME TRUE!

ALL EYEZ ON US

Four boys on a step when they were young
Not too many songs had they yet sung
Who knew down the road in their high school years
They'd form a band and perform for their peers

Their friendship started at an early age
Long before they stood on a stage
For two Johns, a Pat and also a Pete
Kindergarten was where they were destined to meet

Many years later "VAN" was begun
Just four friends, having fun
Their first performance was "Innisfest"
But who can forget the big "Bandfest"

Where their futures go from here
Is anyone's guess, but have no fear
Wherever they go, or whatever they do
Their friendship will always stay true blue
